

The Water

Amy Studt

I woke up this morning
Marble eyes, danger zone
I am, all transitional
Always searching, never home

But let's go down to the water
where no, no one can bother us
Break banks to the border
Marching on like a Taurus
Shiny pebble dropping to the World down below us
Let's go down to the water
The water, the water, the water

You move softly to me
Turn of phrase leaves its mark
You are, always questioning
Always deliberating
Concrete shark

But let's go down to the water
where no, no one can bother us
Break banks to the border
Marching on like a Taurus
Shiny pebble dropping to the
World down below us
Let's go down to the water

Let's just go down to the water
Down to the water, down to the water
Let's just go down to the water
Down to the water, down to the water
The water, the water, the water
