

Not Enough

Amy Wadge

All the faded photographs
All the broken little pieces of the past
And promises, they hang like ghosts
In between your clothes
What you really think of that?

We lost our hearts
Before we knew what it was
We kept on fighting
For something that's lost
And we didn't know
The world needs some love

'Cause oh no it's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough
And oh no it's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough

All the patience lost with holding on
And finding out the cost of being strong
'Cause fingertips, they lose their grip
Start to slip before too long
And where d'you think the feeling's gone?

We lost our hearts
Before we knew what it was
We kept on fighting
For something that's lost
And we didn't know
The world needs some love

'Cause oh no it's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough
And oh no it's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough

'Cause oh no it's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough
And oh no it's not enough
It's not enough
It's not enough
