

Poor Danny

An Pierlé

Poor Danny
I lost your heart

Poor Danny
I came for you
I came to see you
Lots of times

And then you loved me
You loved me
And you laughed my jokes away

Poor Danny
I came for you to hold me
Look
I drown

I walked the seaside, I walked it sideways
How we hurt ourselves to sleep
I watched the stairways fall into the cellar door
But you, you came for more

Poor Danny
I came for you to love me
But then you said
You needed to explore

I walked the seaside, I walked it sideways
I'd walk a thousand miles to dance you again
But damn you, love me well
You said you'd get with me again

How we search for some future
