

Tenderness

An Pierlé

You can't retreat when life goes wrong
You can't imagine what to do when this is done
Did you expect to see
That you're still nowhere near finding the best of me

You've been unable to dream
You've been unable to see
If there's no tenderness

You don't give up when life gets tough
You can't imagine what you'll do when the sea gets rough
'Cause if the big black wolf is surely going to come
You can't just mess things up then pray you've done nothing wrong

You've been unable to dream
You've been unable to feel
If there's no tenderness

You've been unable to dream
You've been unable to see
If there's no tenderness
If there's no tenderness
