

Walk Away

Ana Popovic

I know that it's the right time Gonna be hard, but i'il try I intend to go right out this door Without bothering, telling you why.

I look at you, standing there, trying to make me stay this one last time
Trying to make me change my mind, it's useless, no matter how h ard you try.
I'il walk away...

I know you'll find another girl who'll believe every word you s ay
All those lies, and pretty words, she'll be glad to let you hav e your way.

Now, baby I ain't worried, you're not the only game in town you do too much arguing 'bout how good you are, I guess I'il tr y not to see you around...

I'll walk away, I'll walk away, It's useless no matter how hard you try, I'll walk away...
