

Screaming of the Unborn

Anaal Nathrakh

Now I can hear the wretchedly,
Now I'm free of the screaming animal,
Our antagony,
Who dare defy forever scream,
Screaming of the Unborn.

Son of god you scream out loud,
how blind we be,
I follow bleeding,
I will now promptly bring people,
Far from the oblivion,
Come evil.

Now danger reaches out to devour me,
Freedom saw your god on the throne,
Only the gods are said to leave the party,
Those here will live on forever,
Screaming of the Unborn.

Son of god you scream out loud,
how blind we be,
I follow bleeding,
I will now promptly bring people,
Far from the oblivion,
Come evil.

I am purity,
Gasoline armada,
The devil,
My empire,
Lord had the chance to be born,
Screaming of the Unborn.

Son of god you scream out loud,
how blind we be,
I follow bleeding,
I will now promptly bring people,
Far from the oblivion,
Come evil.
