

Singularity

Anaal Nathrakh

A pointless society necessarily consumes itself
Lacking an exterior goal, circularity assumes its place

Singularity, leaving human intelligence behind
Rapacious decadence, usher in the post-human age

A new feudal age
A new feudal age

At the whim of a lord, we ---
At the whim of a lord, we die
At the whim of a lord, we drown
At the whim of a lord, we ---

At the whim of a lord, what we are is destroyed

Don't even understand the phenomenon to be replaced
Yet an ill-understood emergent phenomenon is still embraced

Singularity, leaving human intelligence behind
Rapacious decadence, usher in the post-human age

A new feudal age
A new feudal age

At the whim of a lord, we ---
At the whim of a lord, we die
At the whim of a lord, we drown
At the whim of a lord, we ---

At the whim of a lord, what we are is destroyed

Like a parody of a fucking clown, dancing to a circus tune
The least-funny in history

A new feudal age
A new feudal age

At the whim of a lord, we ---
At the whim of a lord, we die
At the whim of a lord, we drown
At the whim of a lord, we ---

At the whim of a lord, what we are is destroyed
