

The Great Spectator

Anaal Nathrakh

The great spectator

There is no fucking meaning, there is no fucking truth
The hate of men will not pass
By the promise of these things, lies have come and never can lead to power

The great spectator

This is human nature, this is what we are
The weak deserve nothing
The dogma teaches the world, all grateful creatures are dying--

The people have no power
The machine cannot be stopped
Let the gathering night consume you inside

Let us call this cretin in His name, as I can't fight
Let us call this cur
Let us bathe in sacred light

The great spectator
