

Born to Fly

Anabel Englund

And I feel like
All the tears have left my eyes
And I feel like
It was all worth my time

Coming up for air out of the void
I'm swimming in
Feel the sun rise on me
It's golden on my skin

Slowly stand
Born to fly
This is isn't how I die
I won't look down
Won't close my eyes
When I take flight

No longer fighting I let go (Let go)
Feel the beat of my heart let it echo (Echo)

Slowly stand
Born to fly
This is isn't how I die
I won't look down
Won't close my eyes
When I take flight

And I feel like
All the tears have left my eyes
And I feel like
It was all worth my time

It was all worth my time

And I feel like
All the tears have left my eyes
And I feel like
It was all worth my time

It was all worth my time
