

Different Worlds

Anabel England

Without you
Without you

There was a time
Could call you up
Summertime
When we grew up
Bittersweet
Go out to see
All the world
From your backseat
I can feel us being pulled
From each other to different worlds

Oh, save it from my thoughts
Keep it from my lips
It's internal war, so who am I without you?
Who am I without you?
Who am I without you?

Who am I without you?
Without you
Without you
Who am I without you?

Remember when
You used to say
Our love would always feel this way
Lost in you
Found my truth
Found out what I had to do
I can feel us being pulled
From each other to different worlds

Without you
Without you

Oh, save it from my thoughts
Keep it from my lips
It's internal war, so who am I without you?
Who am I without you, babe?

Who am I without you?
Without you
Without you
Without you
Who am I without you?

Who am I without you?
Without you
Without you
Who am I without you?
