

Lieday

Anamanaguchi

Don't give me that update
I don't want no version two
When lieday comes tomorrow
They'll force that shit on you

And I don't wanna know
The vibes fly coast to coast
And I don't wanna know
'Cause all the problems I made for myself

We can't stand you lying
'Cause we can't stand at all
Built it up too big to sense it
Will you feel it when it falls?

Or maybe you'll be gone
Or knew it all along
Our parents sing the songs
And all those problems we made for ourselves

I know who put the frogs in the water
A clue from the author
I wish I was a lawyer with a secret I could offer
Meet me with the rabbit at the bottom of the hole
If you're digging something proper
'Cause the proofs all been laid bare
I got truth to spare, I got truth to spare
Yeah, and nobody cares

All our problems
All our problems

You gotta leave 'em wanting more
