Rise And Shine

Anarchy Club

Everybody's talkin' They ain't saying nothing Living in a whisper When they wanted to scream Free to be a very special carbon copy Just another gear to grind Inside the machine

It's not enough to stand up (Rise and Shine) It's time for us to wake up (Rise and Shine) There's no more time for fear (Rising)

It's part of the process So stick to the script Free to pick your colors But just stay in the lines Don't bother changing channels 'Cuz it's all the same shit Life and liberty homogenized and refined

It's not enough to stand up (Rise and Shine) It's time for us to wake up (Rise and Shine) There's no more time for fear (Rising)

Take it all for granted While your paying for it By selling out the person That you wanted to be Honor is a dead word to The blindly loyal There's no more fight for freedom We gave it away for free

It's not enough to stand up (Rise and Shine) It's time for us to wake up (Rise and Shine) There's no more time for fear (Rising)
