

Rooftop

Anastacia

I got your fingerprints on my skin
Ever since that day you've let me in
I feel your vibes, they are circling
You cut so deep, cut so deep

Who needs love leaning to one side?
We're free-falling in the jungle lights
You have it all, got me on stand-by
You cut so deep, cut so deep

'Cause I thought that the trust had gone
Didn't see this coming along
You made me a believer
You made me a believer

And now I'm
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Tell me, will you come and save me?
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Come pick me up, come pick me up
Are you just a lover or my twins soul?
Fire the shots and I need to know
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Come pick me up, come pick me up

So my heart was so tired and numb
It got sick, too much went wrong
You had that match and you let it strike
You cut so deep, cut so deep

Got your darts hitting my bull's-eye
Watching hope doing overtime
Keep me hanging on through the night
You cut so deep, cut so deep

Hey, I thought that the trust had gone
Didn't see this coming along
You made me a believer
You made me a believer, oh

And now I'm
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Tell me, will you come and save me?
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Come pick me up, come pick me up
Are you just a lover or my twin soul?
Fire the shots and I need to know
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Come pick me up, come pick me up

Pick me up when I'm feeling low
Pick me up and show me home
All my senses just need to know
Why your heart feels like gold

So pick me up when I'm feeling low
Pick me up and show me home

All my senses just need to know
Why your heart feels like gold

I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Tell me, will you come and save me?
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Come pick me up, come pick me up
Are you just a lover or my twins soul?
Fire the shots and I need to know
I'm shouting from the rooftop, baby
Come pick me up, come pick me up

Pick me up when I'm feeling low
Pick me up and show me home
All my senses just need to know
Feels like gold
