

Taking baths in holy water
I tread your dirt all the way back home
You're getting bored of the way you're living
You try to steal my light, my soul, my way
Cutting teeth on growing mind games
You're learning life from your TV screen
I always knew, who'd you think you're fooling?
You try to steal my light, my soul, my way on

You, I never liked you anyway
You took a spade to my grave
Yeah a spade to my grave
You, I never liked you anyway
You took a spade to my grave
Yeah a spade to my grave

I'm swimming out of the shit you're talking
I swear you're blind to the world outside
Is this the way you want to live?
With all the dust and the pain you're stirring?
Is it yourself you're struggling with?
You can't breathe with the face you were given

I'm taking baths in my holy water
I tread your dirt all the way back to...

You, I never liked you anyway
You took a spade to my grave
Yeah a spade to my grave
You, I never liked you anyway
You took a spade to my grave
Yeah a spade to my grave

I will cut you up, let you drown in your dirt
Turn my back, I am done listening to your dirt
Your dirt
Your dirt, dirt
I will cut you up, let you drown in your dirt
Turn my back, I am done listening to your dirt
Your dirt
Your dirt, dirt

You, I never liked you anyway
You took a spade to my grave
Yeah a spade to my grave
You, I never liked you anyway
You took a spade to my grave
Yeah a spade to my grave

Spade to my grave
Spade to my grave
