

Lose Your Love

Anavae

I learnt evil from the man himself
When the sun goes down the darkness in my head comes up to play.
I'll follow you down to the edge,
I'll watch you drown then close my eyes.
I'm sorry if I push you away.
I'm sorry if I push you away.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
Ohhhh!
When our hands come undone i'll forget all the sounds.
Your voice is gone, I let you get away.
It's the same view a thousand times but with a changing mind,
my eyes are tired of these same four walls of this heavy heart.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
Ohhhh!
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
Ohhhh!
Do I follow you?
Or go my own way?
How do I let you know?

How do I find it out?
Do I follow you?
How far do I let you go?
Do I let you go?
Do I follow you?
Or go my own way?
How do I let you know?
How do I find it out?
Do I follow you?
How far do I let you go?
Do I let you go?
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me
Ohhhh!
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
Ohhhh!
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
Ohhhh!
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
You'll lose your love for me.
Ohhhh!

It's the same view a thousand times but with a changing a mind, my eyes are tired of these same four walls...
...of this crazy mind.
