

Not Enough

Anavae

Am I not enough?

Don't know how or why, but I'm not okay
I shed my skin today, now I am bare
So use me for everything I've got, go on, use me up
Take me for everything I'm worth before I'm dead and gone

Am I not enough?

Am I not enough?

I always get the feeling of living on the wrong side
Oh God, it hurts when healing
I'm living on the wrong side
I always get the feeling that I'm not enough
(Am I not enough?)

It's worse at night when the addiction pulls
I feel the absence; no one to hold
So use me for everything I've got, go on use me up
Take me for everything I'm worth before I'm dead and gone

Am I not enough?

Am I not enough?

I always get the feeling of living on the wrong side

Oh God, it hurts when healing
I'm living on the wrong side
I always get the feeling that I'm not enough

I'm not damaged, I'm not broken, I'm not no good
I'm not damaged, I'm not broken, I'm not no good
I'm not damaged, I'm not broken, I'm not no good
(I'm not damaged, I'm not broken, I'm not no good)
I'm not damaged, I'm not broken, I'm not no good
(I'm not damaged, I'm not broken, I'm not no good)

Am I not enough?

Am I not enough?

I always get the feeling of living on the wrong side
Oh God, it hurts when healing
I'm living on the wrong side
I always get the feeling that I'm not enough

Am I not enough?

Am I not enough?
