

Animals

Anberlin

You
You're my hill to die on and absolved
You're the hole to lie in, so absorbed, I can't See myself anymore

You
Take up space in my head, oh, it's true
My moment watershed, so absorbed, I can't Tell us apart anymore

Animal, animals
Are we ruthless creatures after all?
Animal, animals
I wanna tear you apart
I wanna eat you alive

You'll
Never want the warmth of other suns
No need to ever feel the death of love, so now
Let yourself cave in

All

My instincts taking over, so run
You slow your body, can't control your lungs
But we both know that few will hunt

Animal, oh animals
Are we ruthless creatures after all?
Animal, oh animals
I wanna tear you apart
I wanna eat you alive
I wanna eat you alive
I wanna tear you apart
I wanna eat you alive
I want to tear you apart!

I want to!

Animal, animals
Are we ruthless creatures after all?
Animal, oh animals
Are we ruthless creatures after all?
Animal, oh animals
I wanna tear you apart
I wanna eat you alive
