

Armageddon

Anberlin

I can learn like nobody else
Trust me now,
I can find a way to bleed
I can find a way

I feel pain like nobody has
Don't trust me now,
I can find a way to leave
I try to find my escape

And even now can you tell what's real?
Cause losses starts to take
What our sin wants, what our sin wants

I can learn like nobody else
Trust me now I can find a way to bleed
I can find a way
Because I found my own way to a personal hell,
A personal hell

I've started my, my own Armageddon
I started my Armageddon
No one else to blame for this world war three (2x)
I've built this city to bring it to its knees

I've faced my mistakes
the price that will pay
I've started my, I've am my own
Armageddon

I've started my, my own Armageddon
I started my, I started my
No one else to blame for this world war three (2x)
I've built this city to bring it to its knees

I've started my, I am my own
Armageddon
