

Asking

Anberlin

Where do all the demons go when they're not inside your head?
What was there in your youth that you've left unsaid?
What do you wish you'd done before your last full breath?
What childhood scar leaves you with even more regrets?

Am I asking too much
Or do you feel the same?
Do you need to take it easy?
I'll be easy on you
Did I take this too far?
Surface the pain
I can take it easy
I'll be easy on you

This tears us closer than we've ever been before
Surrender yourself, this doesn't have to be your war
If you can't bring yourself to look me in the eyes
Then I know that you feel this way down inside

Am I asking too much
Or do you feel the same?
Do you need to take it easy?
I'll be easy on you
Did I take this too far?
Surface the pain
I can take it easy
I'll be easy on you

I want to be the savior to your complex mind
I want to be the quiet in storms I Silverline
I want to be the savior to your complex mind
I want to be the quiet in storms I Silverline

Am I asking too much
Or do you feel the same?
Do you need to take it easy?
I'll go easy on you
Did I take this too far?
I can take the pain
Please don't take it easy
I'll be easy on you

I'll go easy
I'll go easy on you

I want to be the savior to your complex mind
I want to be the quiet in storms I Silverline
