

You could take a walk down a darker lane
Beat yourself up every step of the way
And live your life like a sacrifice
Won't bring you back to yesterday

I can hear the pain shaking in your voice
Screaming like a banshee into the void
But I won't let up, I won't give in
Like two blood brothers at the end

You can rely on me
Till you fall fast into sleep
You can just cry on me
When you wake up from your dreams

You could take that chance, you could take your life
Imagine all the pain that you'd leave behind
Or you could stop right here, you could turn around
Not all is lost when the lost want to be found

I can hear the pain shaking in your voice
Screaming like a banshee into the void
I won't let up, no, I won't give in
Like two blood brothers at the end

You can rely on me
Till you fall fast into sleep
You can just cry, cry on me
When you wake up from your dreams

But I won't let up, and I won't give in
Like two blood brothers at the end
Of our lives side by side, just you and I
Brothers in arms, a friend you can always
Rely on me

You can rely on me
Till you fall fast into sleep
You can just cry, cry on me
When you wake up from your dreams

I will never, I will never let go
I will never let go, I will never let go
Don't say goodbye (I will never let go, I will never let go)
Don't say goodbye (I will never let go, I will never let go)
