

Two Graves

Anberlin

Found myself a shadow
Fault in my veins
Doubt in my lungs
And a chest that had caved

In the fury, you unfold
Weapons formed in gilded homes
In the slough is where you found
Another soul that you bleed out

No down from zero
Don't you ever count me out
Ever ever ever count me out
Of idols and heroes
Soon you'll never go without
So follow follow follow follow me out

Here comes the hammer
You showed your neck
Soon this will drop
And you won't forget

Blood in the water line
There's a thrashing in the tide
You can play dead just to live
You can pray but I don't forgive

No down from zero
Don't you ever count me out
Ever ever ever count me out
Of idols and heroes
Soon you'll never go without
So follow follow follow follow me out

If you want revenge
Then you should dig two graves
If you want revenge
Then you should dig two graves

Dig two graves
Dig two graves
If you want revenge
Then you should dig two graves

If you want
If you want
If you want
If you want
If you want

If you want revenge
Then you should dig two graves
If you want revenge
Then you should dig

Don't you ever ever ever ever ever ever!

Of idols and heroes
So you'll never go without
So follow follow follow follow follow!
