

Collapse

Anchor & Braille

Have you found every collapse just something you can't just start
Haven't even been together and already torn apart
Stories made up in your mind always have a lonely ending
Turning a message that I never remember sending Much too scared to fall, even more to take a leap
While the world keeps dancing you lay there half-asleep
Stop thinking through every word you say
This only love, this is only love, this is only love
Not another relapse, just to find us here
Slow motion in circles, slow motion in fear
Those diverged into woods, still you can't decide
Instead of exploring, you lay your head and hide
Much too young to drown in such a shallow tide
The currents are gentle in the water of life
Stop thinking through every word you say
This only love, this is only love
Don't worry about tomorrow, you did that yesterday
This only love, this is only love
Have you found every collapse just something that you can't see
This is only love, this is only love
Stop thinking through every word you say
This only love, this is only love
Don't worry about tomorrow, you did that yesterday
This only love, this is only love
