Kodachrome

Anchor & Braille

Somewhere, in the back of your mind you'll remember Dragonfly on the empty road broken signal Someday when the water is warm you're forgotten Dead and stone, flesh and bone, until then

All you really have are your memories All you really have are your memories And this could be your last

Kodachrome, overexposed no more mysteries Borderplace, no consequence

All you really have are your memories All you really have are your memories And this could be your last

Secret life, the patience right, you're the killer Turn over, turn it over it all, that it's the

All you really have are your memories All you really have are your memories All you really have are your memories All you really have...

Are your memories (x4)

This could be your last (x5)
