

Death Will Die

Ancient

Death! Your time has come
Ashes slowly you'll become
Wail! Too late to plead
Hea the ancient dragon speak
See your days are all revealed
Every stain is unconcealed
Out of lifeless dust appears
Tales that break you down to tears

From the land of death you leave
What's next you can't conceive

The ancient dragon laughs
Unveils its grisly wrath

Its sempiternal haze
Beguiled the human race
Its ancient disarray
A spiral of dismay
The spiral of decay!

Death may die
Death will die!
Transcendent realms arise
Death will die!

At last you meet your ancient foe
He gifts you now your bitter end
His ugly mask revealed at last
His great disguise, his great demise!

So the vexer dies, his reign is not supreme
See a greater one at last has won
Death is just the beginning of eternity!

Death may die, death will die!
Another realm, breaks forth
The light of the world takes command
Kills the haze with an instant fire

Death may die
Death will die!
