

The Ancient Disarray

Ancient

A disarray invades your mind
Disquietude, but what's behind?
The ancient vexer fights to keep you blind!

Can't be denied, it's everywhere
Can't be perceived, but it's there
It drags your soul into perennial despair!

Cold disarray!
You live or you obey, the ancient disarray!
Cold disarray!
A sickening display, the ancient disarray!

Like a quicksand it pulls you in

A wicked mud that you're drowning in
While sinking endlessly, discern the wicked grin

Putrefaction will be revealed
No longer will it be concealed

When we'll see the end, our final fate is sealed
Cold disarray!
You live or you obey, the ancient disarray!
Cold disarray!
A sickening display, the ancient disarray!
The ultimate betrayal! The ancient disarray!

Ringling in your head
Voices from the dead
Ringling in your head
As your tears turns red
