

Angel, Devil, Man and Beast

And Also The Trees

Angel, devil, man and beast One by one you join the song
One by one you are released Partners in truth deceit

I love you and your reckless ways Your stammer and your hidden grace;

I went from your bed to another bed Swallowed every word that I
'd said Tried hard not to speak your name Never thought I'd fee l the same But I loved again And again

I love you and your hazel eyes Your laughter and your sharp whi te lies.

Who should I blame the most the least Of angel, devil, man or b east? I wasn't pushed I wasn't led As I moved from bed to bed

I love you and your simple taste Your passion and your sleeping face
