

One of Light, One of Soil

...and Oceans

When the being becomes two
The impregnable murk ahead
The vertical movement of the entity
The opposite charge of the halves

Ascend to the above
The one of light and ceaseless age
Descend to the below
The one of dirt and decay

Take my mind to the depths
My perpetual light in the void
Feed my body to the worms
My withering shell in the soil

Geocentric promise of relief
Spoken words of geriatric tongues
Uttered vows to sooth the earthly
Hands held and led astray

Ascend to the above
The one of light and ceaseless age
Descend to the below
The one of dirt and decay

Take my mind to the depths
My perpetual light in the void
Feed my body to the worms
My withering shell in the soil
