

Men In Uniform

And One

Maybe we've no time to lose to rest for a while i never had the chance to say thank you

i'm everything
i'm everywhere
always behind you to save and protect and i hope to hear you say ...

so feel me and see me - love me these are the uniforms white like snow - like innocence pain is the price for devotion devotion the price for pain we are with you to save and protect (to save and protect) for the world beyond the river

we are the men in uniform we are the blame right in the sun

maybe one day i will give a sign evidence for the existence of me of us
you will believe you must believe me
believe me
