

It Was There That I Saw You

...And You Will Know Us By The Trail Of Dead

It was there that I saw you and
It was there that I came
As evening sighs, rises up against the skyline
Let me come and have my leis

You were fair and fey as a sun that evil day
We were bold and life was great
But as time went on, I wondered what went wrong
I wondered what became of you

Let me hold you in my arms, dear and
Let me melt in the heat of your gaze
And let the clock strike one, time and mind go marching on Let our sense of self decay

It was there that I saw you, yeah
In the heat of a summer's embrace
But as time went on, I wondered what went wrong
I wondered what became, became Became
Became, became of you
