I've never looked at you before
I've never looked at you like this
I'd never cut the way you did
And I just won't forget

Making bones of fists
I never said that I won't be wrong here
Get it right, you know
You never made it out to say "I'm sorry"

Cause you ran away like a boyfriend
Who warms his hands without me
Talk to me like a boyfriend
Make me believe what I need

Back and forth
You never needed me like this
I never cut away, but didn't say
Though you won't walk away

Moving on re-fused
And then I said that I won't burn you
Maybe I regret I never said that I would say "I'm sorry"

Cause you ran away like a boyfriend (boyfriend)
Who warms his hands without me
Talk to me like a boyfriend (boyfriend)
Make me believe what I need
