

Falling

Anderson East

Why should I come out?
I'm fine here all alone
Surprise I even answered
Why you wanna call me now?
I don't understand, I don't wanna know
An ordinary man hardly holding on
And what if I was

Falling for you falling for me?
Couldn't get it wrong tonight
I was falling for you falling for me
There ain't nothing wrong or right

How did you put all those words into my mouth?
Oh, Lord, I thought I was over my fear of missing out
It's happening again, don't say you told me so
Don't have to tell your friends, they don't need to know

That I'm falling for you falling for me
Couldn't get it wrong tonight
Falling for you falling for me
There ain't nothing wrong or right

Swore long as I live, I'd never do this again
There would never be another
But you ain't any other
Swore long as I live, I'd never do this again
There would never be another
But you ain't any other
And I've been

Falling for you falling for me
Couldn't get it wrong tonight
And I was falling for you falling for me
There ain't nothing wrong or right

(Falling for you falling for me)
(There ain't nothing wrong tonight)
(Falling for you falling for me)
(There ain't nothing wrong tonight)
(Falling for, falling for, falling for, falling for you)
(Falling for, falling for, falling for, falling for you)
