

I've had enough
Can't make sense of this world we living in
It keeps speeding up
I'm playing sides in this game nobody wins

'Cause at the end of every day and every night
I need my favorite high
To ease my state of mind

My, my Madelyn
Hold you tight just to find some shelter, oh-oh
My Madelyn
Spend my life dying just to tell you

And I'm a stubborn man
I made up mind but you made me think again
Oh, it got outta hand
Can't make sense of myself but you'll understand
You'll understand

'Cause at the end of every day and every night
I need my favorite high
To ease my state of mind

My, my Madelyn
Hold you tight just to find some shelter, oh-oh
My Madelyn
Spend my life dying just to tell you, oh

You make the best of my situation, no compromise
No second guessing, I can't deny

My, my Madelyn
Hold you tight just to find some shelter, oh-oh
My, my Madelyn
Spend my life dying just to tell you

My
Hold you tight just to find some shelter, yeah (oh-oh)
Spend my life dying just to tell you, oh (my Madelyn)
Hold you tight just to find some shelter, yeah (my Madelyn)
Spend my life dying just to tell you, oh (my Madelyn)
