

Surrender

Anderson East

Thought I was a fighter
I'm throwing in the towel
Backed in my corner
There's no winning now
My heart is on the ropes
My guard is going down
Falling for you love
Giving in, bowing out

Lord don't let em
But I don't know why
I'm throwing myself out into the fire
Willing victim of wild desire

Can't help but surrender to you
Help but surrender to you, you, you
You, you, you

Gotta play with the motions
Got me acting the fool
Gotta have emotion for falling in love with you
It's out in the open
I've made all my moves
It's a game of hearts
I'm willing to lose

Lord don't let em
But I don't know why
I'm throwing myself out into the fire
Willing victim of wild desire

Can't help but surrender to you
Help but surrender to you, you, you
You, you, you

Help but surrender
Help but surrender
Help but surrender to you
Help but surrender to you

Lord don't let em
But I don't know why
I'm throwing myself out into the fire
Willing victim of wild desire

Can't help but surrender to you
Help but surrender to you
