

The Last Days of Rain

Andi Deris

This life was solitary
Myself my sanctuary
Alive but fragmentary
Day and night
A lonesome fight
My dreams got ancillary
My mind a cemetery
But just preliminary
'cause here you are
To kiss my scares

Yeah, now is the last day the rain comes down on me
Yeah, now is the last day the sun keeps hiding

I drowned in abnegation
Saw no need to search salvation
Got stuck in blind stagnation
Paralyzed
Self-hypnotised
You spoke words of redemption
Pulled me in your dimension
Life seems like a new invention
You brought me
Back into be

Yeah, now is the last day the rain comes down on me
Yeah, now is the last day the sun keeps hiding
Now is the last day the stars won't shine for me
Yeah, now is the last day wear this chain
The last days of the rain
The last days of the rain
