

Dude

Andi

Deleting pictures of us online
Telling my friends that I'll be alright
And this decision, it was all mine
Mine, mine
Like Cinderella would lose her shoes
I lost my senses and fell for you
Guess I was blind to the warning sign
Sign, signs

Somehow you seem to find
Someone to fill that space
A new girl over night
Under the spell you placed

You're just a dude, she's just a girl
Now I'm the ex, you wrecked my world
So from a distance, I'll be watching
You reel her in with all your talking

Now I'm a mess, and you're just fine
And she's obsessed, buying your lies
And she saw from my point of view
But she knows, baby, that you're just a dude

Stop acting pretentious, you drive a Nissan
Not much of a carriage, the fancy's gone
So why do I wish you would come
And pick me up?
Saw she's wearing your jersey with the number 2
Doesn't look as good as it looked on you
And you're gonna play her
She's a fool, fool, fool

Somehow you seem to find
Someone to fill that space (Ah-oh)
A new girl over night
But bitch, I can't be replaced

You're just a dude, she's just a girl
Now I'm the ex, you wrecked my world
So from a distance, I'll be watching
You reel her in with all your talking

Now I'm a mess, and you're just fine
And she's obsessed, buying your lies
And she saw from my point of view
But she knows, baby, that you're just a dude

So why do I spend all my hours
Wasting time?
Thinking 'bout how you said goodbye, so easily
And let us die
You're not the prince I had in my mind
It took losing you to realize

You're just a dude, she's just a girl
She'll be an ex, you'll wreck her world

So from a distance, I'll be watching
You reel her in with all your talking

She'll be a mess, and you'll be fine
And she'll obsess, over your lies
Now she sees from my point of view
Now everybody knows that you're just a dude
