

House On Fire

Andi

I let my hair down and set your house on fire
No one will care 'cause you're a fucking liar
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time

Said I wouldn't drink tonight
Somehow I ended up drunk
What the hell was I thinking?
Said I wouldn't think tonight
But now I'm thinking too much
Yeah, I'm wondering what you've been drinking

Started off alright, I didn't miss a sleepless night without you
Don't think about you, anymore
But then I heard that you were talking to my friends
And I got a little mad, so I stormed right out

I let my hair down and set your house on fire
No one will care 'cause you're a fucking liar
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time
Get on my hands and knees and slash all four tires
No, you can't run from this
No, you can't hide
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time

Said I wouldn't kiss you
'Cause when I think about you I throw up (Ew)
What the fuck? (Ha)
I know I shouldn't miss you, that's why I don't
'Cause you can't love, yea, you'll never love, oh

Started off alright I didn't miss a sleepless night without you
I still don't think about you, anymore
But then I heard that you were talking to my friends
And I got a little mad, so I stormed right out that door

I let my hair down and set your house on fire
No one will care 'cause you're a fucking liar
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time
Get on my hands and knees and slash all four tires
No, you can't run from this
No, you can't hide
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time

I let my hair down and set your house on fire
If I'm a crazy chick, then you're my fucking sire
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time
Get on my hands and knees and slash all four of your tires
No, you can't run from this, no you can't hide
And, I-I-I-I-I
Say it one more time

Oh, woah, oh, woah, woah, oh woah, woah, oh, woah
Set your house on fire
Oh, woah, oh, woah, woah, oh woah, woah, oh, woah
Set your house on fire
