

Never Yours

Andi

You had his weekends and late nights but no flowers at your door
Drunk texts and Facetimes but he's not calling anymore
Heard a rumor he was with her but you can't be that mad
'Cause you didn't get that far and he said "it wasn't like that"

When he cheats and tells a lie
Call your friends and you just cry
Curse his name and talk about it the whole night
When he wasn't quite that bad
And you're not angry, you're just sad
You get your closure and you move on with your life
There's a guide to getting over every heartbreak you endure
But nobody ever said what to do when he was never yours

There's not a book that you could read, there's not a song that I could write
There's not a party you could go to to get him off your mind
And you tell your friends it's over, you tell your friends it's fine
And this crying you've been doing's useless 'cause he was never mine

When he cheats and tells a lie
Call your friends and you just cry
Curse his name and talk about it the whole night
When he wasn't quite that bad
And you're not angry, you're just sad
You get your closure and you move on with your life
There's a guide to getting over every heartbreak you endure
But nobody ever said what to do when he was never yours
