

One Man Show

Andi

I'm doing good, it's great to see you
Lie through my teeth and out my mouth
I know it's something we all go through
But it seems like everybody else has got it figured out

If I'm too honest, I'll ruin the mood
I'm readin' my lines and I wait for the cue
Hate being a liar but I'm scared of the truth so

You'd never know
All the places that my mind goes
When it's late and nobody's home
To watch me put on my one man show
You'd never see
All the times I swear I can't breathe
'Cause I smile while suffocating
I take a bow as the curtains close
I hate this one man show

I've good friends and good intentions (Oh-oh-oh)
So what could make me feel this bad? (This bad, this bad)
Don't understand these big emotions
'Cause one plus one, should never equal fear, and so damn sad

If I'm too honest, I'll ruin the mood
I'm readin' my lines and I wait for the cue
Hate being a liar but I'm scared of the truth so

You'd never know
All the places that my mind goes
When it's late and nobody's home
To watch me put on my one man show
You'd never see
All the times I swear I can't breathe
'Cause I smile while suffocating
I take a bow as the curtains close
I hate this one man show

Gotten good at acting like everything is fine
I fake a smile so you will think I'm alright
I won't let you see what's going on inside
Don't wanna die, but it's so hard being alive

Wish you could know
All the places that my mind goes
Oh, I hope that somebody's home
So I could end this one man show (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
You'd never see
All the times I swear I can't breathe
'Cause I smile while suffocating
I take a bow as the curtains close
I hate this one man show

If I'm too honest
I'm readin' my lines and
Hate being a liar
