

The View

Andi

Couldn't eat, couldn't sleep
I was stuck on it for weeks
When you did, what you did, you did to me
Every day, every night, let it ruin my whole life
Just a stupid boy who couldn't treat me right

And just today, I woke up fine
Not a tear fell from my eyes
I made it to the other side
It just took some extra time

Now I realized my world didn't end when it came to you
I was so stuck under the clouds they were blocking the view
It takes some time to move on
It's all for the better
I've learned now that my happy ending
Was hidden and covered in blue
It just began when it ended with you

Looking back all a girl can do is laugh
Don't know how I ever put up with that trash
And now I hear you found someone
Send my regards and best of luck
'Cause she'll need it when you break her heart and leave that poor girl crushed

'Til the day, she wakes up fine
Not a single tear fell from her eyes
She made it to the other side
It just took some extra time

Now I realized my world didn't end when it came to you
I was so stuck under the clouds they were blocking the view
It takes some time to move on
It's all for the better
I've learned now that my happy ending
Was hidden and covered in blue
It just began when it ended with you

And she'd be
So proud of you
And she'd be
So proud 'cause

Now I realized my world didn't end when it came to you
I was so stuck under the clouds they were blocking the view
