

When It's Later

Andi

You only call me when it's later
Won't pick up the phone
You're making me a habit, just a midnight call
I'm not doing any favours, I'm sleeping alone
You only call me when it's later, later

And it's so goddamn confusing
You're like a drug I know I shouldn't, but I'm abusing
'Cause I'm not the only one on your lie
I should move on
Stop wasting my time

(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
You only call (na, na, na, na, na, na) when it's later, oh no
(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
I'm disconnecting the phone
(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
Don't just call me later

Boy, you're such a smooth talker
You're repeating me lies and I fell every time
You said you like my blue eyes
I was one of a kind
And then you stumbled on a name that's not mine

And it's so gaddamn confusing
When I give my heart and then you misuse it
'Cause I know I'm not the top of your dial
I should move on
Stop wasting my time

(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
You only call (na, na, na, na, na, na) when it's later, oh no
(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
I'm disconnecting the phone
(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
Don't just call me later
(Na, na, na, na, na, na)
You only call (you only call) when it's later, oh no (oh, no, n o, no)
I'm disconnecting the phone (the phone)
Don't just call me later (don't do it, no)
