

Heavy On My Mind

Andra Day

It takes patience to know when to stop
It takes wisdom to know when not to say goodbye
It takes courage to see that you and me
Have run our course
Love ain't easy

It weighs heavy on my mind
It weighs heavy on my mind
So heavy on my mind
Heavy on my mind
So heavy all the time
Because I stay up waiting, saving my love for you

It's gonna be a wonderful summer, Folarin Ralph
Sorry, Charlie Murphy was having too much fun
They say you do too much when you tryna pursue the one
I'm tryna find the balance, a balance in going goofy
A tutu could never suit me, so truly, you know what's up
Dearly, I love you dearly, but clearly you don't see it
Fear of underachieving may lead to overthinking
Yeah, you got me, but you got your freedom
High and free
Yeah, you hope I'm joking, I hope you single, I fear
You don't need me, aware
I'm only dreaming, it's weird
I caught feelings by looking at magazines, I chill (Chill)
And then you running through my mind again
You and I are just a concept, yeah
But I am hypnotized by them gold-green eyes
I would die to be your contact, yeah
I try to keep it light, be polite, but it's like you ain't mine yet? Yeah

Heavy on my mind
So heavy on my mind
Until next time
Heavy on my mind
So heavy all the time
Because I stay up
Waiting, waiting now, saving my love for you

It's unusual doing usual things
And now it's time to float
All the clouds have been waiting for me to ascend
They know who you are
It weighs heavy on my mind

Heavy on my mind
So heavy on my mind
Heavy on my mind
So heavy all the time
Because I stay up waiting, saving my love

It's so, it's so heavy on my mind
So heavy on my mind
Heavy on my mind, mind
So heavy all the time
'Cause I stay up waiting, saving my love for you

So heavy on my mind
Stop playing with me
Heavy on my mind
Like you ain't elevating with me
Heavy on my mind
And I'm grateful for your patience, but I'm anxious, really
Because I stay up waiting
So say it to me
Saving my love
You got it, shawty
For you