Andra Day

Pay me never mind, I waste time in my mind
It never comes out as planned, overthink into a wonderland
Simon says when I lose my mind, I can't find it
Favorite remedy takes a chance, pull me from all of the pain

Show me love and I give you more
Plan this out, you gon' swear I'm Death Note
You're my candy store, love galore
I want more, make me comfortable
Show me love and I give you more
Plan this out, you gon' swear I'm Death Note
You're my candy store, love galore
I want more, make me comfortable

Well, you are what I've waited for
Uh, and your love, oh boy, I want more
Ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh

Now I can't help but put my moves on ya
Favorite nuisance to ya
Me and myself have spent too much time
Gotta get used to ya
Baby, I'll prove to ya

Losing you will be the greatest fall
Baby, aw, break me, break me off
Won't you take me all
Promise not to break me if I choose you and all your flaws
Be like, "Girl, what's the cost?"
We gonna take our course
I just pray, "Oh, sweet Lord"

But you are what I waited for
Oh, of your love, oh boy, I want more love
'Cause you're my exhale at the end of the day, yeah
And you're my sweetest and my safest space, oh
Oh, you are what I've waited for
You are
