

Narcos (H.C.D)

Andra Day

You kept me on a pedestal, heavenly high
While you fraternize on Earth
One or two years go by, but still you never learn
Your same old tricks and my same mistakes will make things worse
(Same old tricks)

Good God up above will bring heaven crashing down on us
Maybe next time you'll learn
Not to bring somebody into your misery
Just 'cause you're lonely

Good God up above will bring heaven crashing down on us
I hope God above will bring heaven crashing down

You play victim so good, I cry
Watching you play like you hurt
Screaming at me on the tarmac before I fly
Why are you so insecure?
So fraudulent, and your jealous words just made a mess (So fraudulent)
But I don't like things to end
Capricorn shit, I guess
Maybe next time I'll learn
Not to fill the space with venomous gossip
Just 'cause I'm lonely

Good God up above should be laughing at the two of us (Two of us)
Maybe this time we'll learn
I hope God above will bring heaven crashing down
