

Memories

Andragonia

I've tried to understand the reasons
Why something good can hurt so bad?
There is no way to make us turn back in time
I hope one day we could make a brand new start

The blowing wind brings me sweet memories
Times and places where we used to share our dreams
I can't go on, I'm on my own
I'd like to know if you feel the same too
I can't go on, I'm on my own
I'd like to know where we go to

I've tried to understand the feelings why love likes to play its tricks?
When all seems unreal reality makes me see
The joy we must live will go straight to it's end

The falling rain will wash our memories away
Our story I keep inside will be lost along the way
I can't go on, I'm on my own
I'd like to know if you feel the same too
I can't go on, I'm on my own
I'd like to know where we go to

The blowing wind brings me sweet memories
The falling rain will wash our memories away
I can't go on, I'm on my own
I'd like to know if you feel the same too
I can't go on, I'm on my own
I'd like to know where we go to.
