

Linger

Andrew Allen

Every single hour felt like minutes to me
Meeting you and slowing down came effortlessly
It was like a full moon that never burns out
I wanna hold you, and spin you around

Your hands, my body
Baby, don't stop please
I'm obviously, yours

Go slow, I like to let it linger
You know, my knees are getting weaker
Uh oh, no kiss was ever sweeter
Eyes closed, deep breath I can feel your

Lips touch, dammit do I need ya
Your hair, running through my fingers
Sunlight, silhouettes your figure
Eyes closed, deep breath
Let it linger

You and I are moving though we're perfectly still
Can we pause and let the world turn off and start to unbuild
All of these moments that keep us apart
I wanna slow down the beat of my heart

Go slow, I like to let it linger
You know, my knees are getting weaker
Uh oh, no kiss was ever sweeter
Eyes closed, deep breath I can feel your

Lips touch, dammit do I need ya
Your hair, running through my fingers
Sunlight, silhouettes your figure
Eyes closed, deep breath
Let it linger

Your hands, my body
Baby, don't stop please
I'm obviously, yours

Go slow, I like to let it linger
You know, my knees are getting weaker
Uh oh, no kiss was ever sweeter
Eyes closed, deep breath I can feel your

Lips touch, dammit do I need ya
Your hair, running through my fingers
Sunlight, silhouettes your figure
Eyes closed, deep breath
Let it linger
