

Stealing Kisses

Andrew Allen

If you ask me how I felt when we fell in love
I'd tell you every kiss wasn't long enough
If you ask me how I feel after all this time
I still wanna get lost in your eyes

If you ask me if I ever stole a thing or two
I'd tell ya that I mighta stole a kiss from you
Well if that's a crime, ya better give me life
'Cause I won't ever think it's wrong, when it feels so right

When I'm 85, I'll still be stealing kisses from you
I'll find a place to hide for you and I
'Cause I don't need a lot, and all you are, is all I want
They say some things are worth way more than gold
Well so is every kiss I ever stole

If you ask me how I feel about truth or dare
Just give me the when, and I'll meet you there
If you're asking me to meet you in our secret place
How could I say no to that perfect face?

When I'm 85, I'll still be stealing kisses from you
I'll find a place to hide for you and I
'Cause I don't need a lot, and all you are, is all I want
They say some things are worth way more than gold
Well so is every kiss I ever stole

Well time has never been a friend of mine
So what, if we steal, a little back for you and I
I got, at least, a million places we should go
To make moments of our own, and no one will ever know

And when I'm 85, I'll still be stealing kisses from you
I'll find a place to hide for you and I
'Cause I don't need a lot, and all you are, is all I want
They say some things are worth way more than gold
Well so is every kiss I ever stole
