Don't Blame Yourself

You need someone to be

Andrew Belle

```
Oh
I don't get to sleep very well anymore because of you
And all my jeans are torn from begging on my knees in front of you
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
I don't like to be very sentimental if I don't have to be
But I think that I just may have glued my hands to yours
If you had asked me
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Don't blame yourself
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me
Oh
Don't blame yourself
Don't blame yourself 'cause I know that you try
But you need someone to be
Someone better than me in your life
You need someone to be
