

Drought

Andrew Belle

You wanna live in my head
Don't want to let you down
But there's no easy way into my mind that I've found
Well I don't really believe you wanna see me die
But baby there's no truth to the hurt when you lie

I wanna live in your heart
I wanna pull you in
And maybe that's what I need, to relive where I've been
I feel you pulling away, see you put it down
But sometimes all that it takes is nobody else around

You fill with doubt
Like you're swallowing water in a drought
Our love's a fire
That we can't put out, can't put out

Well I just want to forget
Just want to say goodbye
It's hard with darkness out there so I live in the light
I think I know who you are
I've been here before
You're adding up the numbers that I knew anymore

I wanna stay where you are
I'll come down to you
Baby that's what I need when you win and I lose
I feel you pulling away from this side of the car
I might have forgot who I was, but I know who we are

You fill with doubt
Like you're swallowing water in a drought
Our love's a fire
That we can't put out, can't put out

Love's gonna find me out
I know I should be gone by now
Love's gonna find me out
Love's gonna find me out

Love's gonna find me out
I know I should be gone by now
Love's gonna find me out
Love's gonna find me

I might have forgot who I was, but I know who we are

You fill with doubt
Like you're swallowing water in a drought
Our love's a fire
That we can't put out, can't put out
