

Holy Water

Andrew Belle

Tomorrow
I leave, you see
'Cause I know you are waiting for me
I'll go there
I cannot stay
Away from you
Any longer

And I know, I know you're never far from me
Somewhere between the valley and the sea
The holy water
The cold salt air
Could you ever know how much it meant to me?
I only saw your forest for your trees
You were holy water
And I said my prayers

Beside us
A movie plays
The characters are so familiar
The same fears
The same old fight
Could you revise?
Are you willing to try?

And I know, I know you're never far from me
Somewhere between the valley and the sea
The holy water
The cold salt air
Could you ever know how much it meant to me?
I only saw your forest for your trees
You were holy water
And I said my prayers

Could you ever know? (Could you ever know?)
Did you ever know?
Could you ever know? (Could you ever know?)
Did you ever know?

And I know, I know you're never far from me
Somewhere between the valley and the sea
The holy water
The cold salt air
Could you ever know how much it meant to me?
I only saw your forest for your trees
You were holy water
And I said my prayers
