Hole In the Ocean Floor

Andrew Bird

I woke with a start Crying bullets, beating heart To hear all God's creatures Roaring again

Not a cricket was creaking, Or a floorboard was squeaking, And all the world was snoring again

There's a hole in the ocean floor There's a hole in the ocean floor Gonna stop bleeding alone

I woke with a start Crying bullets, beating heart To hear all God's creatures Roaring again...
